Property Description

This exceptional projected plot enjoys a privileged location in the heart of La Cerquilla, an exclusive residential enclave. It includes a project designed by Diego Tobal, with optional interiors by renowned architect Pedro Peña. Built on a distinguished plot located in the heart of La Cerquilla, it offers stunning mountain and sea views.

The project, one of three designed by Diego Tobal, stands out as the most impressive and sophisticated in the collection. This project in La Cerquilla exemplifies innovative architecture, perfectly blending the natural surroundings with premium materials and refined design. The option to include interiors by Pedro Peña further enhances the experience of luxury and comfort. Its privileged location makes it a unique opportunity.

Located in La Cerquilla, one of Marbella's most coveted residential areas, the plot offers privacy and exclusivity in the prestigious Golf Valley. This location combines seclusion with convenience, with easy access to world-class golf courses, shopping centers, and international schools. Its location in Nueva Andalucía guarantees proximity to Marbella's iconic Golden Mile, vibrant Puerto Banús, and the charming city center.
