Property Description

Located right on the edge of the Valle Romano golf course, this villa offers unobstructed views of the golf course and the mountains. A bright, high-quality home.

The main floor features an open-concept living-dining area, large windows, and a kitchen equipped with Miele appliances and a central island. The lower level has four bedrooms that sleep eight people, including a master suite with a terrace and private bathroom. The home also features two full bathrooms, three half-baths, and ample storage space.

The private terrace, measuring approximately 60 m², combines a lounge area, a covered dining area, and a sunbathing area. The heated infinity pool, over ten meters long, includes a beach area. The property offers a low-maintenance garden and private parking for two cars, located within a secure gated community with no homeowners` association fees.

Ideal as a second home or investment: it generates over €80,000 net annually in rental income, with a proven track record of occupancy.
