Property Description

We are pleased to present you a property of which it is well known that there are not many available due to the great utility of its location and space. In other words, we are before the perfect opportunity both to create our great dream home, in the center of Fuengirola, with a parking space inside our own porch and another just in front since it has a ford. The first floor as you enter at street level, has everything you need to live as a family, kitchen, bathroom, 3 bedrooms and access to the wonderful patio that connects with the upper floor. We could access the upper part both through the exterior door in front of the house and internally from the interior patio. There are two floors of housing and a third, which is the very large solarium perfect for family gatherings, chillout area, barbecue with friends... this last floor has a pergola, and a large storage room. The light comes from all parts of the house, if something prioritizes in the house it is luminosity. On the upper floor we have two bedrooms, living room and kitchen, also a large and complete bathroom. From above we can go out to the terraces both inside and outside. The one who visits, does not regret it...
