First qualities, privileged location, quiet and private area

A lifestyle in the center of Marbella walking to the beach, promenade and all services. Located in the heart of Marbella, walking to all kinds of services and a step away from the beach and the Marina. The old town is also a short walk away, where we can enjoy the best restaurants, luxury boutiques, with the emblematic Plaza de Los Naranjos and its colorful cafes just a stones throw away.

We can also quickly access both Puerto BanÃ³s - just 10 minutes by car- where we will enjoy pleasant walks and its vibrant nightlife, as well as the city of Malaga and its International Airport, located just 45 minutes away by road.

South West orientation, lots of light and sun all day

The common areas will stand out for their elegance and their touches of wood, green areas and natural stone, always at the level of the most demanding clients. We access the building through a beautiful hall, which leads us to the co-working area where we can have connections to work from home.

Next we find a complete gym where residents can get in shape in their spare time. The basement has parking spaces and storage rooms, accessible through the elevator that connects all levels of the building.
