Property Description

Newly renovated contemporary style townhouse with an amazing use of space offering all amenities you need at the comfort of your home.

As you enter the property, you will find an open plan fully equipped Gaggenau kitchen with access to a private patio. A beautiful living room and dining space with great attention to detail, wooden herringbone floor and natural colour palette.

On the same floor, you can find the en-suite master bedroom with walking closet and bathtub facing the main terrace as well as a second bedroom facing the patio.

On the lower ground floor, you will be mind blown by the great use of space. You are welcomed by an entertainment area with pool table and bar, as well as a home cinema, a gym and a unique wine cellar where the natural mountain has been left intact as a valued feature. Additionally there is a guest toilet, a spacious laundry room and an third en suite bedroom.

Finally, the property offers a cosy terrace with beautiful views and access to its own garden with outdoor shower. The townhouse is situated on a charming Andalusian urbanisation in the vicinity of the renowned Manolo Santana Racquets Club offering a large community pool and own cafeteria and sports bar.
